The big question...

Entrepreneurship & Career Development...

How does this go together?

The big reveal...

If you can write a grant application...

... you can plan your career & write a business plan

Let's start with a definition...

Entrepreneurship is the pursuit of an opportunity beyond the resources currently under your control.

Howard H. Stevenson, Harvard Business School

It's a set of skills...

Council of the European Union

Council recommendations on key competences for lifelong learning
(May 2018)

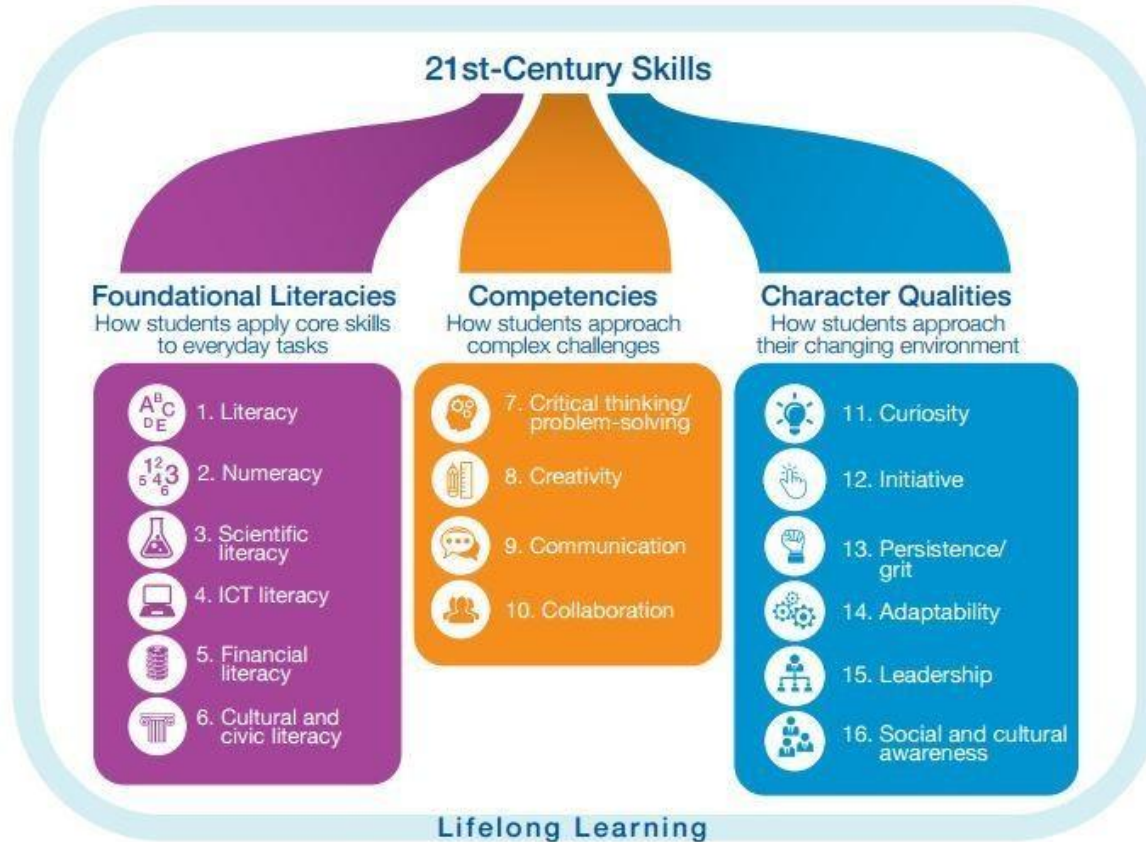

Entrepreneurship competence refers to the capacity to act upon opportunities and ideas, and to transform them into values for others. It is founded upon creativity, critical thinking and problem solving, taking initiative and perseverance and the ability to work collaboratively in order to plan and manage projects that are of cultural, social or financial value.

It's a way of thinking...

World Economic Forum: Education & training require new approaches (March 2016)

Exhibit 1: Students require 16 skills for the 21st century

Note: ICT stands for information and communications technology.

“The gap between the skills people learn and the skills people need is becoming more obvious, as traditional learning falls short of equipping students with the knowledge they need to thrive...”
